1964 In Lemon Grove

JANUARY

Teachers, Church Women

Teachers in the Grossmont High School District started out 1964 with a $300 raise and the Homeland Council of Church Women started the year by holding their fourth annual meeting early in January. Mrs. Curtis D. Barlow was installed as president and Mrs. Charles Taylor took over the office of vice president.

At the first Lemon Grove Men's Club meeting of the year California Patrolman John Annis told about new smog control laws.

Work was underway on Monte Vista Lodge, a Lemon Grove retirement facility.

Mrs. Robert Moore, who owned the Lemon Grove Yardage Shop, was robbed of $40 by a youth armed with a knife. Two days later a man robbed Station Manager Bud Hartney of $70 at Ulrich's self-service station.

New Officers

In mid-January 100 guests attended the installation of officers by the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club at a dinner-dance at Singing Hills Country Club.

Mrs. Bernard McNulty was elected vice president of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club, replacing Mrs. William O'Toole who moved from Lemon Grove.

FEBRUARY

$47,000 Fire

During the first week in February a $47,000 fire hit the Skyline Wesleyan Methodist Church. The damage was done to a new addition to the church.

During February safety was the password in Lemon Grove. The local Chamber of Commerce's Merchant's Division joined with the California Highway Patrol, the Sheriff's Department and the county Safety council to set up a three-day safety lane check.

Incorporation Extension

In mid-February the County Board of Supervisors granted a 30-day extension to proponents of Lemon Grove incorporation to gain signatures to call for an incorporation election.

Mrs. Robert Hill was awarded an Honorary Life Membership by the Valley Grove Council of the Parent-Teachers Association.

MARCH

John Sweet Award

The Lemon Grove Review was honored with the John Sweet State Award for Weekly Newspapers. The award was made at a March meeting of the Lemon Grove Teachers Association.

Kim Jung Hi, a Korean orphan sponsored by the Lemon Grove Woman's Club, celebrated her 12th birthday on March 20. She was adopted by the club in 1956.

Goldwater Visit

March 20 was also a day of importance in Lemon Grove. It marked the first time that a presidential candidate made an appearance here. The candidate was Barry Goldwater who led an auto caravan into Lemon Grove and received a boutonniere from Mrs. Warren Parks before giving a short talk.

APRIL

Shumate Elected

Early in April Parker Shumate, 39, a Pacific Telephone

Co. employee, was elected to the Lemon Grove local fire district board of commissioners.

In mid-April petitions bearing the signatures of 2,811 Lemon Grove property owners were filed with the County Board of Supervisors. The petitions paved the way for an election on Lemon Grove incorporation.

MAY

Woman of the Year

Early in May Dr. Amorita Treganza was crowned San Diego's "Woman of the Year" at a banquet at Hotel del Coronado.

South Pacific

"South Pacific" was held over for two additional performances at Mount Miguel High School.

Forrest Baxter, veteran chamber of commerce member, was installed president of the organization. He had served as president.

Helix Water Board Members Face Election Opponents

Bob Rundell, 52, a three-term veteran of the Helix Irrigation District will face two opponents in the Feb. 2 water district election.

Rundell, a real estate broker who lives at 8544 Gateside rd., La Mesa, will face Alfred E. O'Brien, 35, an insurance man of 3939 Kenwood dr., Spring Valley and Virgil W. Steffen, 50, an insurance man, of 4058 Rogers rd., Spring Valley.

Rundell's fourth district includes the north part of Spring Valley and Casa de Oro, part of Mt. Helix, Eastridge, South La Mesa, Calavo Gardens and Shadow Hills. There are approximately 11,200 people qualified to vote in the fourth district.

John B. Gibson, 58, a businessman of 7920 El Capitan, La Mesa, faces an opponent in the second district. This district covers downtown La Mesa, Fletcher Hills, Grossmont and part of Mt. Helix. There are approximately 13,000 registered voters in the district. He is opposed by Douglas V. Brunson, 30, an account representative of 5361 Lakewood dr., La Mesa.

Deadline for filing was December 24.

Board members are elected from five districts set up on a geographic - population basis. Directors are elected for four year terms. The three other board members will end their terms in two years.

Rundell was first elected to the board in 1953 and has served three terms. Gibson was appointed to the board in 1959 and elected in 1961.

Rainfall Totals 1.39 Inches

Winter squalls came to the Spring Valley-Lemon Grove area this week and left 1.39 inches of water in a two-day storm.

It brought the month's total of rainfall here to 1.55 inches. The season's (from July 1) total is 2.96, just three inches short of the same period in 1963.

The storm brought snow to the Laguna and Cuyamaca Mountains. Road scrapers were employed to make the roads usable.

Cold air tumbled down the nearby mountains and chilled the area Tuesday night. Officially, low temperature in Spring Valley was 32 degrees. In Lemon Grove it was 25 degrees.

Dail Taken Off 'Critical' List

The condition of John Dail, a Lemon Grove insurance man who collapsed Dec. 13 at home, was reported as "improved" Wednesday by a Grossmont hospital spokesman.

Dail, who lives at 3240 Olive st., Lemon Grove, was found unconscious in bed by his wife. Members of the Lemon Grove Fire Department resuscitator squad applied oxygen. He was transported to Grossmont where he remained in a coma for approximately a week.

Dr. Simon Brumbaugh said that Dail suffered from pneumonia.

Dail was removed from the "critical" list Christmas week. It will be at least another week before visitors are permitted, the hospital spokesman said.

Bird Gets Scroll From Supervisors

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — David W. Bird, apparently attending his last regular meeting as a member of the Board of Supervisors, Tuesday received a standing round of applause from other board members and the county staff.

The occasion was the passing of a resolution commending Bird on his 24 years of service to the county as a board member.

After the vote Bird remarked to the clerk, "I voted for that, didn't I?"

Chairman Robert Dent as he handed Bird the elaborate scroll said, "This is so very small in comparison to what you have accomplished."

Bird replied, "I've had a great time on the board and I appreciate the opportunity I have had to serve as well as the fine associates and cooperation."

Bird said after the meeting that the Superior Court hearing on his recount petition will be held at 10 a.m. on Jan. 11. It was set in an order signed by Judge George A. Lazar who will be the presiding judge in 1965.

Henry A. Boney of La Mesa apparently defeated Bird by 169 votes out of more than 110,000 cast in the second district. Boney will take his seat on the board Monday at noon. He has already been sworn in by County Clerk R. B. James.

Mailbox Blasted Off Wall Of Home

Mrs. Anna Barlow of 8567 Golden ave., Lemon Grove, told sheriff's deputies that a mailbox was blown off the wall of her home last week.

Mrs. Barlow told investigators that she heard a loud explosion and then the sound of a vehicle leaving fast. When she went outside there was quite a bit of smoke and her mailbox was on the ground, she said.

Shells, Knife Gone

Five boxes of rifle shells, a hunting knife and a snake bite kit were reported stolen from the glove compartment of a pickup truck owned by A. T. Martin of 909 Parkbrook, Spring Valley.

Mrs. Martin reported to sheriff's officers that the items, worth $14, were stolen last week.

There's Nothing Wrong In Being Strong

It is likely that Roswell L. Gilpatric, director or President Johnson's atomic proliferation program, will be named to head the Central Intelligence Agency, replacing John A. McCone who is ready to hand in his resignation, it is said.

Gilpatric was deputy secretary for defense for three years until he relinquished the post about a year ago.

According to Phyllis Schafly and R. Adm. Chester Ward (USN ret.) in a 1964 study on the Pentagon "The Gravediggers," Gilpatric is reported to be the author of an article in Foreign Affairs in which he announced a plan to end U. S. military supremacy.

In theory, the U. S. would share its nuclear hardware with other powers until a point is reached where the United States would be no stronger than any other power. We could, therefore, pursue peace as an equal rather than as a bully. We suppose that we would be allowed to conscientiously win wars, if we could, if we were too weak to look like a victor going in.

We hope there is a lucid explanation for Mr. Gilpatric's appointment to the C. I. A. We hope Mr. Gilpatric has a lucid explanation for his philosophy which apparently is based on the need for keeping the U. S. a weak nation.

It is strictly in a dream world that weakness is strength and a strong defense is criminal. It is in a dream world where weak nations call the plays as strong nations wrestle with the problems of finding peace. It is only in a dream world where the strong

Parents Group Exchanges Charges With Trustees

Parents Committee on Education and the board of trustees of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District were at each other Monday evening over the Christmas letter the board was to have sent home via the students.

The board of trustees voted to ask county council if it could take action against groups trying to intimidate teachers. The board said the Parents Committee on Education threatened teachers and principals in 22 telegrams. In return, the Parents group objected to a section of the letter dealing with unification.

Parents Committee on Education had not threatened teachers and principals, Clyde Jenkins, a spokesman for the group said. Jenkins was the one who signed the telegrams.

However, the school board defended the letter on the basis that it contained the views of the board on unification. Dr. Cyril Padfield pointed out that the letter was no different than hundreds of other letters persons have sent over the years.

Rev. Lewis Ginn, a board member, said Parents for Education should have brought their complaints to the board and should not have threatened teachers. Jenkins said his group had not intended to attack the board but had been formed to work on unification.

Regarding the letter, the telegram from Jenkins to the board, stressed four points: It said the letter:

1. Contained a possible violation of the state education code.
2. Would circulate false political information via school children.
3. Was an improper use of public funds.
4. Carried an improper interjection of political views.

The board decided to send out copies of the letter — they will be given to the children to take home.

Trade With China Opposed Here By Young Republicans

The Lemon Grove Young Republicans have unanimously passed a resolution against any proposed trade with Red China by the United States.

The resolution referred to a recent statement by Gov. Brown in which he recommended trading with the Chinese Communists and said that he considered such trade as beneficial to California.

The resolution then called upon "all good Americans to put America's best interests ahead of the pocketbook," and warned that "Such trade with the enemy can only result in another miscalculation such as selling scrap iron to Japan in the 1940's."

Dr. Edwin Grubbs, local physician and newly elected president of the group, said that his organization is now in the middle of a membership drive and urged all interested persons to call 466-8340 for further information. The group meets on the third Monday of every month in the Lemon Grove Medical Group Bldg.

Lottery Plan Started Here Still Alive

Several months ago this publication recited an ingenious plan that could lift the U. S. out of its inflation problem — and perhaps pay some of its indebtedness.

Concocted by a Lemon Grove man, J. Meyer Zung of 7858 Golden ave., the plan was so simple that it almost defied believability.

Basically a lottery, the plan would have citizens tearing dollar bills in half and mailing one half to a lottery commission in Washington. Since each end of U. S. currency carries serial numbers, a winner could easily identify himself.

Winning numbers would be posted in each Post Office every week.

The plan would do several things. It would take half of the money out of circulation if prizes amounted to half of the total bet. That slows inflation by removing huge amounts of paper money without the government having to redeem it. Surplus amounts, if any, could be used for education or for senior citizens projects. A third benefit would be profits on low handling cost postage for millions of participants mail. It would, by this process, reduce the postal deficit, too. State and federal taxes would benefit with the amount of winnings.

The article was reprinted in TRUE MAGAZINE and a quantity of replies of commendation came to him. All thought it a splendid idea. One of two area Congressmen showed some interest in the Zung plan and recently a retired teacher took up the plan as a project.

In copies of letters she sent to Zung, she shows that the American Association of Retired Persons, National Retired Teachers Association will keep the suggestion available for its policy making Legislative Council. She also is urging the American Medical Association to consider it. The retired teacher, Mrs. Johannah M. Chute of Hawthorne, Calif., urges in her letter that the proceeds from the Zung plan be used "for doctor's fees and hospitalization instead of sending millions to Ireland every year to pay for theirs."

Zung said this week that he is compiling a report for use in furthering his plan based on correspondence he has received since the article first ran in this publication.

Dear Editor:

Where are all the Christmas Carols
That we heard the day before?
'Tis the 26th of December
And we don't hear them any more

We have greeted the infant Saviour
Who just began his life on earth,

But we've put aside the carols
That hailed his virgin birth.
Four busy weeks we sang them

Through all the heavy work entailed

Preparing for His birthday
Oh, how many cards we mailed.

Now Emmanuel, "God with us"

No longer seems worthwhile.
We're exchanging gifts and buying
Bargains in each store's center aisle.

We celebrate a birthday
After the child is born
And not for weeks beforehand

Let's start on Christmas morn.
Where are all the Christmas carols

That we heard the day before?
'Tis the 26th of December
And we don't hear them any more.

LeRoy A. Hubbard On Duty At Air Base in Viet Nam

BIEN HOA, Viet Nam — Eighteen miles outside Saigon at Bien Hoa Air Base, Airman First Class LeRoy A. Hubbard, formerly of 1046 Woodhaven dr., Spring Valley, is now on duty with a unit of the Pacific Air Forces which is providing combat training and advisory assistance to Viet Nam.

Airman Hubbard, a vehicle operator, is helping provide essential support and services for USAF aircrews who fly with Vietnamese personnel across treacherous jungles and rugged terrain — often under fire — in the fight against communist aggression.

Service Planned For Joseph Calescibetta, Lost in China Sea

Memorial services for Joseph Calescibetta, 35, gunner's mate second class, USN, of 747 Osage st., Spring Valley, will be held at St. John of the Cross Catholic Church, Lemon Grove at 9 a.m. Jan. 2.

Calescibetta fell overboard while doing some work on the destroyer Wedderburn Dec. 17 in the China Sea. The location was many miles from land, a spokesman said. A life ring was thrown to Calescibetta, but when the ship turned about to search for him all that was found was the ring. Sea and aircraft searched for him for three days and nights. He leaves his wife, Nadia, and seven children.

James Parks Dies, Services Wednesday

Funeral services for J. Glenn Parks, 67, of 8654 Troy st., Spring Valley, were held Wednesday at Erickson-Anderson Mortuary, La Mesa, with burial in Ft. Rosecrans National Cemetery. Rev. Herschel H. Hedgpeth, pastor of the First Methodist Church of La Mesa, officiated. Parks died Dec. 26.

A native of Newton, Kan., Glenn Parks had lived in San Diego County 44 years and 42 years in Spring Valley. His was one of the first houses on Troy st. He was a Navy veteran of World War I and a retired El Cajon City Improvement inspector. For 30 years he had been a member of American Legion Post 282, and was a past-commander of La Mesa American Legion.

Survivors include his widow, Nellie, a son, Thomas R. Parks of El Cajon; a brother, Rufus Parks of San Diego; four sisters, Mrs. Ruth Gutchaw of La Mesa, Mrs. A. L. Farr of Spring Valley, Mrs. Thomas Harper and Mrs. G. L. Johnston, both of Oklahoma; and three grandchildren.

GROWTH CONTINUES IN SPRING VALLEY

The greater Spring Valley, Casa de Oro and La Presa areas continued their increased growth pattern during 1964. This was determined recently through interviews with leading businessmen in all three areas of the Valley, according to a report from the S. V. Chamber of Commerce. Retail store sales are up and bank receipts continue to grow steadily. Previously published information reflects that both branches of the Bank of America in Spring Valley caught on quickly to local economic activity and reached their $1 million mark within their first year of operation.

The Spring Valley Shopping Center at Jamacha blvd. and Sweetwater rd. has a current building area less than 150,000 square feet of retail sales and space, but is better than 90 per cent leased. Retail sales for 1964 exceeded $5 million, representing approximately a 16 per cent increase over 1963. Anticipated expansion for 1965 includes a new unit in the neighborhood of 30,000 square feet to be occupied by a movie theatre and small shops, 22 services in stores, one additional store and a Hickory Bar-B-Que to be opened in January. New building and increased utility development continue to rise.

New subdivisions in South Spring Valley continue the increased trend in the residential prospects. The Lakeshore subdivision is currently constructing 23 homes in its first unit. A total of 83 homes has been planned.

Lakeview knolls, overlooking Sweetwater Lake, completed 40 new homes in early 1964, and the builders, Scimitar Homes, Inc., plan more. Other new construction in the La Presa area includes the new shopping center, La Presa Plaza, at Grand and Jamacha blvd. A new professional office has been completed in the same area and Coperton Development Co. has planned a new commercial building. Kenneth Golden and Ed Losch were awarded a $1,924,944 contract early in 1964 for installation of water, sewer and streets on Dictionary Hill, improving 52 blocks of residential view property. Completion of this contract is scheduled for early 1966, and construction will begin on individual view homes shortly thereafter. Sites for approximately 750 homes are in this area.

A new Italian restaurant is scheduled to be built, designed after Italian architecture, groto-type construction. The owner has made several trips to Italy to bring back special recipes for his place of business, and designs for the building.

A subdivision is now under construction on Ildicea st., near Mt. Miguel High School, and an estimated 25 to 30 homes will be built there. The first multi-family residential home construction in the greater Spring Valley area was finished in La Presa in 1964 by Bayshore Homes, Inc. and Scimitar Homes, Inc. These apartments were occupied before the builders had an opportunity to plant the lawns. Additional apartment units are planned for the future in the La Presa area and the area surrounding the Thrifty-mart Shopping area.

A concerted effort will be made in 1965 by the Economic Development Committee of the S. V. Chamber of Commerce to attract additional light industry into the La Presa area.

A projected future freeway plan will bring a five-way interchange to the Sweetwater Lake area. This interchange will provide access to the north along existing Sweetwater rd., which will eventually become six lane Ramona Freeway; around Sweetwater Lake as part of the South Bay Freeway to the eastern side of Brown Field; extending into the new Harbor and the San Miguel Freeway; northwest into downtown San Diego.

Ed Fackler, Jr., local businessman, in the greater Spring Valley, Casa de Oro and La Presa areas, anticipates a substantial increase in growth and activity as freeway access is made available.

The Henry Langhorst Restaurant moved from downtown San Diego to a spot on the old La Mesa Airport, near Jamacha blvd. and Sweetwater Springs blvd.

The Casa de Oro area opened its Casa Plaza Shopping Center during 1964 and currently plans additional units at their location along Campo rd. Additional new subdivisions for the Casa de Oro area are planned for the coming year. Mt. Helix Highlands, Brock Const. Co., American Housing Guild, Arnold Realty, Maybee and Townsend, and three other groups, plan to start construction on units in 1965. The T. G. and Y. department store was constructed in 1964 and is now operating in the C. D. O. Complex.

The anticipated freeways into and through the greater S.V. area, including Casa de Oro and La Presa, will bring additional increased building activity in the Valley. A solid steady growth is ahead, Gil Ray, C.D.O. businessman, said.

The Valley is served by two bus companies; the Economy Line, serving east and north sections of the Valley, while the San Diego Transit System serves the western and southern sections. Both the Yellow Cab and the Diamond Cab companies have extended their services into Spring Valley.

The 1964-65 total taxable assessed property value is $28,692,980. And still the Valley is in need of an automobile dealership, a motel facility and a jewelry store.

Spring Valley is the largest, most densely populated unincorporated area in San Diego County. A 1961 study for incorporation feasibility for a "City of Spring Valley," stated that gas tax and motor vehicle license returns would total $136,550, business licenses $17,000, sales taxes $71,000 and an estimated population for the year 1965 of 22,000 for the area, under study as a possible incorporated city. This area is smaller than that of the Spring Valley Local Fire District, upon which the above figures are based. Population tables increase in the report to an estimated 32,000 in the year 1970, with an estimated assessed valuation of $36,500,000. It is assumed that gas tax, auto licenses and sales tax returns to the State of California would appreciate in proportion to the increase in population.

Army of 4,000 Prepares Area Peanut Campaign

More than 4,000 San Diego Camp Fire Girls are preparing to sell 100,000 cartons of butter toffee peanuts at one dollar per carton when their annual peanut sale begins on Jan. 15.

Robert M. McCuen, chairman of the 1965 Camp Fire Girls Peanut Sale, said, "The order for 100,000 cartons of butter toffee peanuts was placed yesterday and we expect to sell 75,000 of them during the first week."

Proceeds of the sale will provide capital funds for improvements at the Camp Fire Girls resident camp at Cuyamaca, the day camp at Balboa Park and the primitive camp site at Poway as well as to supplement the council's operating budget, the major portion of which comes from United Community Services.

Local Accountants To Hear Speech On Profit Objective

H. A. Pluss, 3314 Ybarra rd., Spring Valley, director of the 500-member San Diego Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, has announced that James D. Willson, vice-president-finance of the Tidewater Oil Company, Los Angeles, will address the local accountants on the subject of "The Profit Objective—A Basic Motivation in Financial Management" at the chapter's dinner meeting at the Town and Country Hotel on Wednesday, Jan. 13. Willson, in his address, will explain that the profit objective in most companies must be reached by using 'people-oriented' reports. To motivate the proper response, operating results must be compared with a suitable measuring stick, and presented in a simple effective manner.

The NAA, with over 52,000 members, is the largest accounting and financial organization in the world and is dedicated to bringing about a better understanding of the purposes and uses of management accounting.

The event, open to members of the interested business public and accounting students, will begin at 6 p.m. with a social hour.

In addition to Pluss, four other Spring Valley residents are members of the board of directors of the local unit. They are: J. D. Forbes, 3624 Saddle dr.; W. J. Kirkpatrick, 3313 Ybarra rd.; R. L. Thompson, 3418 S. Granada st.; and D. F. Zachau, 517 Alene st.

nation continually gives way, backs up, temporizes, snatches defeat from victory, and takes lumps at every confrontation. What excuses can be offered for this nation accepting defeat without necessity at Berlin's wall, at Cuba, at Korea, and at Viet Nam. This nation also accepts defeat at the hands of Panama, a valid treaty notwithstanding.

We encouraged Panama to abrogate its treaty as readily as we renounced the Monroe Doctrine when Russia set up a missile wall in Cuba.

We have operated too long out of a pretended weakness in a world that understands and respects courage and strength. Each proven show of weakness encourages other nations to act against our interests. For them it has become safe, fun, and profitable.

There is nothing wrong with being strong and just. But for Heaven's sake, let's admit we're right when we are, and act as strong as we are right.

Crime Notes . . .

The five council candidates who received the most votes but who were left without a city were Frank Armstrong, Paul Reynolds, Kenneth Conrad, Robert Vaught and Dr. Frank Gigliotti.

And with one election over, other election issues and candidates were stirring controversy. The Bird-Boney campaign was gaining steam.

District seat held by Dick Donovan.
